CENTURY 21 Canada Congratulates the Fall 2010 Management Academy Graduates

On December 2, 2010, 25 CENTURY 21 Canada System members graduated from CENTURY 21 Canada's Management Academy course.

Management Academy is an entry-level management course that thoroughly prepares broker/owners and managers to take advantage of the many tools and programs offered by the CENTURY 21 System. With four days of intensive instruction, the course was designed to prepare owners, brokers and managers on how to proactively operate his or her real estate company. Management Academy is mandatory for all new CENTURY 21 Canada Franchisees and is highly recommended for new managers and brokers.

Through various mediums of learning, the Management Academy curriculum addresses the fundamentals of real estate office management including sales management, business planning, leadership skills and recruitment.

"Management Academy was designed to help our CENTURY 21 Owners and Brokers succeed in today's industry," says Brian Rushton, Senior Vice-President of Operations for CENTURY 21 Canada. "Our 25 graduates have been given the knowledge, systems and tools to do just that."

CENTURY 21 Canada is pleased to congratulate the Fall 2010 Management Academy graduating class:
