

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CENTURY 21 Platinum Realty has a New Home

Edmonton, AB – CENTURY 21 Platinum Realty is moving to a new office at the end of March. Located at 7605 104 Avenue, the new office is equipped with new technology and software that will allow their agents to assist their clients better.

New owners Brad Warkentin, Chapman Im, Patrick S. Au , Duane Springsteel , Lynne MacDonald and Anna Trojandniuz have great plans for CENTURY 21 Platinum Realty. Their goal is to maintain the strong bonds they've built through their years as CENTURY 21 System members and to create a welcoming and comfortable environment for their clients.

"We're really excited to be the new owners of such a great company," says Lynne MacDonald. "We have an idea to bring our agents back together to have regular meetings and to encourage more education. We're upgrading our software and adding new technology to help serve our clients better," says Lynne.

CENTURY 21 Platinum Realty is one of the fastest growing real estate companies in Alberta. As a full service brokerage, the company specializes in many areas of real estate including residential properties, fine homes and estates, commercial and investment, rural, agricultural, industrial, vacation properties and new home constructions in Edmonton and its surrounding areas.

"CENTURY 21 Canada congratulates the new owners of CENTURY 21 Platinum Realty," says Brian Rushton, Senior Vice-President of Operations at CENTURY 21 Canada. "We are looking forward to assisting the CENTURY 21 Platinum Realty team in achieving their business goals."

As local market experts, CENTURY 21 Platinum Realty sales professionals are uniquely qualified to help home buyers navigate the opportunities that exist in the local real estate market and provide sellers with an excellent marketing and exposure for their properties.
