CENTURY 21 Expands Services in Eastern Ontario

Carleton Place, ON – CENTURY 21 Explorer Realty, co-owned by Margaret Burniston and Brenda Macdonald Rowe, have opened four new satellite offices to help bring them closer to their clients.

"Many of our clients are moving from the city to rural locations we already service, and back in to the city from rural," says Margaret. "It became a natural extension of our business to service our clients where they work and live."

With headquarters at 145 Bridge Street, Carleton Place, ON, CENTURY 21 Explorer Realty is providing full-service real estate assistance, specializing in real estate sales in Arnprior, Carleton Place, Kanata, Ottawa and Perth as well as surrounding areas.

"CENTURY 21 Canada congratulates CENTURY 21 Explorer Realty on this great expansion. We look forward to assisting the entire team at CENTURY 21 Explorer Realty with their continued success," says Brian Rushton, Senior Vice President of Operations at CENTURY 21 Canada.

As local market experts, CENTURY 21 Explorer sales professionals are uniquely qualified to help home buyers navigate the opportunities that exist in the local real estate market and provide sellers with an excellent marketing and exposure for their properties. To view property listings, please visit the website of CENTURY 21 Explorer Realty at www.century21.ca/explorerrealty.

When asked why they chose the CENTURY 21 System, Margaret said, "It's simply the most recognized brand in the world and brings tremendous credibility to our agents. It also creates a level of confidence in our clients that they have selected a world-class and professional real estate organization to represent their needs."

CENTURY 21 Explorer Realty is an AIR MILES® Reward Program participating office. Please contact the office for full details.
