CENTURY 21 Expands Services in Bradford, Ontario

Bradford, ON – On February 2, CENTURY 21 Heritage Group Ltd. celebrated the opening of their new office in Bradford. Residents of the community were invited to drop in for refreshments and meet the team.

The decision to open the new office at the old CIBC building at 49 Holland Street West CENTURY 21 Heritage Group was an easy decision for Pamela Prescott, Broker and Owner of CENTURY 21 Heritage Group.

"The town is so vibrant and it's expanding. We wanted to be a part of that growth," says Pamela. "Now our clients will have an office in town rather than travel to our other offices. It also means we can get more involved in the community."

Pamela has been in real estate for about 35 years and brings her values of professionalism, ethical conduct and great customer service to all her clients. When asked why she chose the CENTURY 21 System, Pamela said, "I wanted to find the brand that most suited my style and values as a Realtor. CENTURY 21 is known and a trusted name in real estate."

With headquarters at 1160 Yonge Street in Richmond Hill, CENTURY 21 Heritage Group has been providing full-service real estate assistance to homebuyers and sellers in the Greater Toronto Area and York Region for the past 20 years. The company also has offices in Newmarket and Thornhill.

"CENTURY 21 Canada congratulates CENTURY 21 Heritage Group on opening the new office. We look forward to assisting CENTURY 21 Heritage Group in meeting their clients' real estate needs," says Brian Rushton, Senior Vice President of Operations at CENTURY 21 Canada.

As local market experts, CENTURY 21 Heritage Group sales professionals are uniquely qualified to help home buyers navigate the opportunities that exist in the local real estate market and provide sellers with an excellent marketing and exposure for their properties.
