CENTURY 21 Joins Stouffville Community

Stouffville, ON – CENTURY 21 Leading Edge Realty Inc. has expanded to serve the growing community of Stouffville, ON. Conveniently located on the busiest street in Stouffville, the new satellite office at 6393 Main Street is easily accessible to their customers.

The decision to open the new office seemed like a natural step. Considered an ideal location for many who are interested in moving out of the busier Markham area, Stouffville has been an attractive community for many homebuyers.

"We're striving to be the number one real estate firm across the Greater Toronto Area," says Tasis Giannoukakis, real estate sales representative and manager of CENTURY 21 Leading Edge Realty. "Having a presence in the fast growing community of Stouffville allows us to provide superior service to both our agents and the public."

With headquarters at 301-1825 Markham Road in Scarborough, CENTURY 21 Leading Edge Realty has been providing full-service real estate assistance to homebuyers and sellers in Southern Ontario for more than 10 years. The company also has offices in Toronto, Aurora, Gravenhurst, Markham and Unionville.

Owner, Paul Baron has been in real estate since 1984. He has thorough knowledge of the real estate industry and continues to take courses to stay up-to-date. He has also been recognized as a Broker of Record, ensuring all sales representatives and brokers at CENTURY 21 Leading Edge Realty comply with the Real Estate and Business Brokers Act and The Toronto Real Estate Board By-Laws.

"CENTURY 21 Canada congratulates CENTURY 21 Leading Edge Realty on opening the new office. We look forward to assisting CENTURY 21 Leading Edge Realty in meeting their clients' real estate needs," says Brian Rushton, Senior Vice President of Operations at CENTURY 21 Canada.

As local market experts, CENTURY 21 Leading Edge Realty sales professionals are uniquely qualified to help home buyers navigate the opportunities that exist in the local real estate market and provide sellers with excellent marketing and exposure for their properties.
