

CENTURY 21 Canada Announces Gloria Joller as Sales Associate of the Year

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

September 10, 2008

Vancouver, BC - CENTURY 21 Canada offers its warmest congratulations to 2007 Sales Associate of the Year Gloria Joller of CENTURY 21 Prudential Estates (RMD) Ltd. in Richmond, BC. The award was presented at the 2008 CENTURY 21 Canadian Conference in Ottawa, ON, on September 6.

A long-time CENTURION® producer and Hall of Fame inductee, Joller has been with the CENTURY 21 System since 1981, and says that winning Sales Associate of the Year has inspired her to do even more: "I realized I don't have to retire—I can keep going. It's a growing experience through life, and it's interesting to be rewarded for doing what feels right. I'm still trying to figure out what it means to me and what to do next." Joller realized that she was not quite ready for retirement last year, because, as she claims, "I still do really enjoy the real estate business—it almost feels like volunteering." She continues, "It's a satisfying thing to help make people's lives better. I've gotten so much knowledge from all the courses I've done, and I feel like I should use the talents that I've got to help people."

Sales Associate of the Year is based a number of criteria, including years with the CENTURY 21 System; years as a CENTURION® producer and Top 21 member; participation in real estate board activities and fundraising initiatives; Conference attendance; use of CENTURY 21 tools, systems, educational programs, and the referral network; quality service; and nominations from sales representatives and brokers.
