

PEI Real Estate Association honours CENTURY 21 Broker/Owner - John Ives

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

June 2, 2008

John Ives, broker of record of CENTURY 21 Colonial Realty Inc. in Charlottetown PE, was recognized earlier this month for his contributions and achievements over an incredible career in the real estate industry, spanning over 40 years.

The PEI Real Estate Association hosted this special celebration in honor of Ives and fellow REALTOR®, Stanley Mol, also a long time member.

Ives started his career in 1967 and was one of the first office owners to join the CENTURY 21 System in PEI. Under his leadership, CENTURY 21 Colonial Realty Inc. has long been a pillar office with the respect of the entire CENTURY 21 System.

Ives is an instrumental figure in the PEI real estate industry, having held many prestigious positions during his career, including President of the PEIREA, Director of CREA and President of the Greater Charlottetown Chamber of Commerce. Ives is also a firm supporter of many local charity organizations and was awarded The Liz Coady award in 1995 from the PEIREA, which recognizes PEI Realtors for outstanding community service.

Ives has also helped shape the future of CENTURY 21 through the years. As a distinct member of the CENTURY 21 Chairman's Circle and having served as Atlantic Canada broker council president, Ives has left an indelible mark on this organization's history. Ives was also awarded Franchisee of the Year Award in 2002 by CENTURY 21 peers.

Ives' son Joel Ives is also a distinguished member of the real estate industry, and has achieved accolades in his own right. Joel Ives is owner of CENTURY 21 Colonial Realty Inc. and manages the day to day business of the company. "As his son I have had the great opportunity to have my father as a mentor, boss, partner and now as one of my sales people that I still count on for guidance. This was by no means a retirement party as I believe my father has many more years and sales to go," says Joel Ives.

"I've had the distinct privilege of knowing John Ives for over 28 years," says Don Lawby, President of CENTURY 21 Canada. "John has an unwavering commitment to his work, his customers and his staff and is an exemplary member of the CENTURY 21 family. I was tremendously pleased to attend this special reception in his honor to celebrate and recognize his contributions to the PEI real estate industry. I congratulate him on a truly amazing career that has helped shape the CENTURY 21 organization and forge a path for many other realtors."
