

CENTURY 21 Manager receives REIBC Award of Excellence

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 9, 2009

Creston, BC - CENTURY 21 Canada is pleased to congratulate Scott Veitch on winning the 2009 REIBC Award of Excellence.

Veitch, Manager of CENTURY 21 Veitch Realty – Creston, was recognized during the Real Estate Institute of British Columbia Recognition Dinner on June 11, 2009.

The REIBC Award of Excellence is awarded to the REIBC member who best demonstrates outstanding leadership and contribution within the real estate industry, his or her community, and/or our broader society.

Veitch is well known in the real estate industry in BC having served as a REIBC Governor. In addition, he has served as a Director and Vice-President of the Kootenay Real Estate Board culminating in his becoming President of REIBC in 2002. Veitch has also served as a Director and Vice-President of the British Columbia Real Estate Association (BCREA), and just concluded his term as its President at the end of April.

Veitch began his real estate career as a commercial developer, and joined the CENTURY 21 System in 1999. Veitch has been recognized in the CENTURY 21 awards program numerous times, having achieved CENTURION® Producer status for four consecutive years since 2004.

“We are very pleased to congratulate Scott Veitch on this well deserved honour,” says Don Lawby, President of CENTURY 21 Canada.

“Scott continues to demonstrate a commitment to bettering the real estate industry through his many appointments and positions and is a leader in the CENTURY 21 System. We are also proud to recognize his selfless devotion to the many charitable organizations that Scott has assisted throughout the years.”

Active in his community, Veitch has been involved in significant fundraising for many organizations, including Rotary, amateur sports, and the Canadian Cancer Society. In one evening, Veitch raised over $5,000 for the Canadian Cancer Society by having his head and facial hair shaved while serving as BCREA’s Vice-President. Awarded a Paul Harris Rotary Award in 2008 for exemplary vocational service, Scott is also involved in the Masons.
